

— The Community Post —

— Obituaries —

Dorothy C. Timmerman

Dorothy C. Timmerman, age 84, of 551 S. Fourth St., Coldwater, died on Saturday, Oct. 2, 2010 at Mercer Health, Coldwater.

She was born June 10, 1926 in Sharpsburg, to John Weitzel and Elizabeth (Wilker).

On Nov. 15, 1947 she married Herbert H. Timmerman in Sharpsburg, and he died Nov. 29, 2007.

She is survived by two sons, Jerome Timmerman of Osgood, and Luke (Sharon) Timmerman of Coldwater; seven grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; a sister, Edna Rose of Ft. Recovery; and in-laws, Sally Weitzel of Celina, Mary Ann Weitzel of Ft. Recovery, Art Rindler of Burkettsville, Eva Weitzel of Sharpsburg, Betty Weitzel of Coldwater, Alice Weitzel of Osgood, Clarence Timmerman of Coldwater, Jean Timmerman of Coldwater, Alvin (Rose) Timmerman of Portland, Ind., Evelyn (Don) Kuether of Covington, and Catherine (Larry) Wendel of Wendelin.

She is preceded in death by her husband; her parents; three children, Charles Timmerman, Eileen Ford and Mary Timmerman; a daughter-in-law, Margie Timmerman; brothers, sisters and in-laws, Aloys Weitzel, Arthur (Vita) Weitzel, Lorena (Wilbert) Boeckman, Clete Weitzel, Alvina Rindler, Lawrence (Marie) Weitzel, Joe Weitzel, Luke Rose, Julian Rammel, Richard Weitzel, Julius Weitzel, Patricia Timmerman and Ralph Timmerman.

She was a member of Holy Trinity Catholic Church and its Ladies Sodality.

Mass of Christian Burial was held 10:30 a.m., on Wednesday, Oct. 6, 2010 at Holy Trinity Catholic Church, Coldwater, with Fr. Barry Stechschulte, officiating. Burial followed in St. Elizabeth Cemetery, Coldwater.

Condolences may be left at hogenkampfh.com.