

Thursday, September 17, 2009

Louise A. Stammen

Louise A. Stammen, age 81, died on Wednesday, Sept. 9, 2009 in her home in St. Henry.

She was born March 12, 1928 to William and Cora (King) Wourms of St. Henry. On Feb. 19, 1949, she married Orville "Peter" Stammen, who preceded her in death on Aug. 5, 2005.

She is survived by her children: Dave Stammen of St. Henry, Chuck Stammen of St. Henry, Bill (Janie) Stammen of Celina, Tom (Jo Ellen) Stammen of Camden, Maine, Mark (Christina) Stammen of St. Henry, Bob (Amy) Stammen of St. Henry, Shirley (Eric) Luttmer of Wilmington, N.C., Pat Puthoff of St. Henry and Carolyn (Nick) Dammeyer of Celina; as well as 28 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. She also leaves behind a sister Della Mae Lincoln of Dayton. She is preceded in death by a son-in-law Frank Puthoff and siblings: Ken Wourms, Paul Wourms and Marie Fiely.

She was a member of St. Henry Church, Daughters of Isabella and the Altar Rosary Sodality. She was a homemaker and a former choir member.

Funeral services were held on Monday, Sept. 14, 2009 at St. Henry Church with Rev. Tom Hemm and Rev. Tony Fortman officiating. Hogenkamp Funeral Home in St. Henry handled the arrangements.