

Richard Wyen

Richard Wyen, 60, of Columbus, Ohio, died Dec. 12, 2003 at Doctor's Hospital West in Columbus, after a long illness.

Mr. Wyen was born July 13, 1943 in Minster, Ohio. His mother, Cleona, continues to live in Minster.

Other survivors include his wife Paula, and three children, Michael, Kelly and Sean, all who live in Gallaway, Ohio.

Mr. Wyen was the second of twelve children and his brothers are Fr. Larry Wyen of St. Henry, David (Jane) of Plano, Tex., Dennis (Winnie) of Troy, James of Minster, Theodore (Tina) of Enon, Philip (Diane) of Minster, and Douglas of Minster; his sisters are Kathy (Steve) Arshan of South Amboy, N.J., Vicki (Max) Cotterman of New Bremen, Carol (Rick) Hoffman of Moscow, and Mary Kay of Minster.

Mr. Wyen spent four years in the Army and then pursued a career working for Bell Telephone in Columbus.

A Mass of Christian Burial was held on Dec. 16 at Ss. Simon and Jude Catholic Church in West Jefferson, Ohio.

Schoedinger Funeral Home in Grove City, Ohio handled the arrangements.