

Obituary

Lester J. Wynn

Lester J. Wynn, 74, 42 N. South St., Osgood, died Tuesday, Feb. 3, 2004 in Briarwood Manor Nursing Home.

Mr. Wynn was born Jan. 25, 1930 in Montezuma, the son of the late John and Catherine Stueve Wynn.

He married Wilma Bellert, who preceded him in death. He then married Wilma Studor Bergman, May 14, 1964 in St. Louis Church, North Star. She survives.

Other survivors include a son Kenneth (Marge) of Coldwater; five step sons David (Mary) Bergman of North Star, Daniel (Donna) Bergman of Florida, Patrick (Marilyn) Bergman of Versailles, Mark Bergman of Osgood and Carl (Karen) Bergman of Coldwater; a daughter Janet (Chuck) Kemper of Crestline, Ohio; a step daughter Mary (Gary) Reinhart of Coldwater; and 21 grandchildren.

A brother Elmer of Coldwater and a sister Lorena Reichart of St. Rose also survive.

Four children, a brother and a sister preceded him in death.

Mr. Wynn was a member of St. Louis Church.

He belonged to the North Star American Legion, and the Celina Moose Lodge.

He was Korean War Army veteran.

He was a farmer.

Fr. David Zink celebrated a Mass of Christian Burial, Feb. 7, 2004 at St. Louis Church. Burial followed in St. Joseph Cemetery, Fort Recovery.

Hogenkamp Funeral Home, Coldwater, handled the arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to State of the Heart Home Health and Hospice.