Dr. Kenneth H. Ziegenbusch, 84, of Celina, passed away at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 6, 2011, at Joint Township District Memorial Hospital in St. Marys.

He was born on Dec. 18, 1926, in Jackson Township, the son of the late Henry W. and Emma (Bergman) Ziegenbusch.

On June 2, 1956, he married Kitty-Hunt Jones at St. George Catholic Church in Cincinnati, and she survives in Celina.

He is also survived by his children, Karen Z. (Kevin) Gardner of Lawrenceburg, Pa., Kenneth H. (Kelly) Ziegenbusch Jr. of Sugar Creek, Krista H. Ziegenbusch of Springfield; six grandchildren, Nicholas Ziegenbusch, Max Ziegenbusch, Ray Ziegenbusch, Kyle A. Gardner, Kathryn Gardner, Kenneth John Nicholson.

He was also preceded in death by his brother, Elwood and Ursula Ziegenbusch; two sisters, Evelyn Ziegenbusch, Velma and Ben Schlater.

He graduated from Minster High School in 1944. He then served his country at the end of World War II in the U.S. Army Occupational Forces.

He received his pre-med schooling from Bowling Green State University and received his medical degree from the University of Cincinnati Medical School in 1955. He practiced in New Bremen from 1957 to 1964, then became a radiologist at Geisinger Hospital in Danville, Pa., until 1968. He was a radiologist for Van Wert Hospital, Ottis Hospital, Gibbons Hospital, Coldwater Hospital and Joint Township District Memorial Hospital. He retired from West Ohio X-Ray. He has since been emeritus for the state of Ohio.

He was a member of the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Celina, the VFW Post 6432 in Minster and the American Medical Association.

A Mass of Christian burial was held at 10 a.m. Dec. 10 at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Celina, with the Rev. Kenneth Schnipke officiating. Burial followed at German-Protestant Cemetery in New Bremen. Condolences may be made at LHDfuneralhome.com. Memorial contributions may be directed to the New Bremen Historic Association and to Call Food Pantry in Celina.
