

Doris Jean Imwalle

Doris Jean Imwalle, 71,
333 High St.,
Newport,
Ohio, died
Thursday,
Nov. 27, 2003 in Wilson Memorial Hospital, Sidney.

Mrs.
Imwalle was born Jan. 12, 1932 in Fort Loramie, the daughter of the late William and Margaret C. Lachey Rateman.

She married Walter L. Brandewie, Oct. 3, 1953 He died Feb. 13, 1963. She married Herbert J. Imwalle, June 21, 1968. He died Jan. 3, 1974.

Survivors include her children:
Steven J. (Toshie Wilson) Brandewie of Anna, William P. (Joyce) Brandewie of Versailles, Daniel L. (Kristi) Brandewie of Russia, Shirley A. (Ron) Finkenbine of Anna, Mark A. (Anita) Brandewie of Fort Loramie, Eric W. Brandewie of Newport, Michelle J. (Mark) Middendorf of Fort Loramie, Joseph H. (Connie) Imwalle of Fort Loramie, Linda L.

(William) Meyer of New Bremen, Connie
S. (Jack) Maurer of New Bremen, Michael A. (Mary Kara) Imwalle of Mobile Ala., Steven L. (Kris) Imwalle of New Bremen, Kathy M. (Jeff) Pape of New Bremen, David C. (Eileen) Imwalle of Tulsa, Okla. and Daniel J. Imwalle of New Bremen; 45 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

A brother Paul (Kate) Rateman of Urbana and sister Mary Lou Noonan of Texas, Patricia Ann (Ray) Shouse of Arizona and Peggy D. Cordonnier of Sidney, also survive.

Mrs. Imwalle was a member of Sts.
Peter and Paul Catholic Church, Newport, and the Ladies' Sodality of the Church. She belonged to the church prayer circle and she was a Board of Elections volunteer.

She was the owner operator of Jean's Beauty Shop and the bookkeeper for Meyer's Garage. She was retired from communications at Wilson Hospital.

Rev. Anthony Cutcher celebrated a Mass of Christian Burial, Dec. 4, 2003 at Sts. Peter and Paul. Burial followed in St. Michael Cemetery, Fort Loramie.
Hogenkamp Funeral Home, Minster, handled the arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to Fort Loramie Rescue Squad and Wilson Hospice Care.