

Kamin, Barhorst exchange vows

Elizabeth Mary Kamin and Eric Paul Barhorst were united in marriage December 18, 2004 at St. Michael's Catholic Church, Fort Loramie.

The bride is the daughter of Frank and Diane Kamin, 314 South Washington Street, New Bremen, and the groom is the son of Jerome and Martha Barhorst, 46 East Park Street, Fort Loramie.

Nick Wilker, organist; Kevin Custis and Pam Wentz, vocalists, and Linda Kuenning, Trumpeter, provided the wedding ceremony music. Father Steven Shoup, of St. Michael's Parish served as the mass celebrant.

Escorted down the aisle by her parents, the bride wore a white, chapel length bridal gown. The strapless A-line gown was made of satin and accented with beading. Elizabeth wore a rhinestone tiara and a chapel length veil with a scalloped edging which was embellished with floral designed embroidery. She carried an arrangement of white Calla lilies, white and pink roses, white freesia, deep purple lisianthus, deep green holly and English Ivy.

Maid of Honor was Kelly Kamin, sister of the bride. Other attendants included: Teresa Barhorst, sister of the groom; Laura Stueve, cousin of the bride; and Kristen Nelson, Christa Nelson, Kate Johnson and Shelly Kittle, all friends of the bride. Morgan Heckman, cousin of the groom, was the flower girl.

All of the bride's attendants wore two piece, A-line, spaghetti strap gowns with a corset style accent down the center front of the bodice. The Maid of Honor's dress was peppermint pink in color and the Bridesmaid's dresses were deep purple in color. Each of the attendants carried an arrangement of mauve Calla lillies, pink roses, deep purple lisianthus, deep green Holly and English ivy. The flower girl wore a white satin ball-gown style dress accented with a pink sash around the waistline. The flower girl also wore a rhinestone tiara, elbow length veil and carried a basket floral arrangement, which matched the bridal bouquet.

Best man was Jerome Barhorst, father of the groom. Other attendants included David Heckman, uncle of the groom; Jonathon Siegrist, Andy Eilerman, Chris Monnin and Brian Monnin, all cousins of the groom; and Bret Kittle, friend of the groom. The ring bearer was Colton Carter, cousin of the bride.

A dinner and dance wedding reception was held at St. Michael's Hall in Fort Loramie following the wedding ceremony.

The bride is an employee of Crown Equipment as a Cost Accountant in New Bremen. The groom is employed by the City of Sidney as Firefighter and Paramedic.

Following their honeymoon in Playa del Carmen, Mexico, the couple resides in Fort Loramie.
