

Mr. and Mrs. Todd Bergman

May ceremony unites couple

Kristi Ann Guggenbiller and Todd James Bergman were united in marriage May 22, 2004 at St. Henry Catholic Church.

The bride is the daughter of Eugene and Alfreda Guggenbiller, 251 S. Westview Avenue, St. Henry, and the groom is the son of Bernard and Carol Bergman, 252 Parkview Drive, St. Henry.

The Rev. Larry Wyen officiated and organist was Deb Goettemoeller, vocalist was Roger DeMange and trumpeter was Ashley Goettemoeller.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride wore a white Milano satin gown featuring an off the shoulder neckline. The fitted bodice was a mock two-piece with a wrap around detachable chapel length train. Scattered alencon lace appliques adorned the bodice, skirt and train. For her headpiece, the bride chose a pearl and rhinestone tiara attached to a double tier elbow length veil.

The bride carried a clutch bouquet full of black magic, charlotte and attachae roses accented with red berries.

Margie Broering and Carol Flaute, sisters of the bride, were matrons of honor. Bridesmaids were Irene Dahlinghaus, sister of the bride, Lisa Prenger, sister of the groom, Amy Nietfeld and Janice Schroer, friends of the couple and Brooke Prenger, godchild of the groom. Flower girl was Jenna Guggenbiller, godchild of the bride.

The bridesmaids wore cranberry chiffon floor length gowns. The bodice featured a Sabrina neckline with a soft chiffon gather to one side with a flounce hemline. The back of the dress had a soft chiffon drape over the scoop neckline. The flower girl wore a satin bodice over a shimmery organza skirt. Pink and red flower petals were sprinkled inside the skirt folds. They carried a clutch bouquet of charlotte roses, lisanthus, alsotromaria and gerber daisies accented with red berries.

Brad Bergman and Jeff Bergman, brothers of the groom, were best men. Groomsmen were Marvin Guggenbiller, Roger Guggenbiller and Denny Guggenbiller, brothers of the bride, Scott Kremer and Ryan Stahl, friends of the couple. Ringbearer was Derek Broering, godchild of the bride.

The mother of the bride chose a pearl colored gown and the mother of the groom chose a black gown. Their flowers consisted of black magic, charlotte and attachae roses.

Following a reception at Romer's Catering and Entertainment Facility, St. Henry, the couple honeymooned in Ocho Rios, Jamaica.

The bride is a graduate of St. Henry High School and Wright State University - Lake Campus and works at the St. Henry Bank.

The groom is a graduate of St. Henry High School and is the Operations Cordinator at Dickman Supply, Celina.

The couple is residing at 242 Parkview Drive, St. Henry.
