Boeke and Chenoweth unite in matrimony at St. Augustine Church

Stephanie Boeke and Ryan Chenoweth were united in marriage on June 23, 2007, at St. Augustine Catholic Church in Minster with the Rev. Rick Nieberding officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Ron and Jane Boeke of Minster. The groom's parents are Brad and Ellen Chenoweth of Indianapolis.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride wore a two-piece, lace and taffeta strapless, A-line corset-back gown. The lace bodice was accented with taffeta ornamenting the empire waistline and sprinkled with crystals that complemented the full taffeta skirt. She carried a bouquet of ball lilies and white roses.

Jill Hein and Kirby Boeke served as matron and maid of honor for their cousin.

Bridesmaids were Jill Malolepszy-Boeke, sister-in-law of the bride; Jamie Bornhorst, cousin of the bride; Jenna Meyer, Katie Quinter, Liz Frierott and Andrea Quellhorst, friends of the couple. Caitlyn O'Brien served as the miniature bride for her cousin.

The bride's attendants wore royal blue strapless gowns that had a modified sweetheart neckline that was accented with a rhinestone broach. They all carried bouquets of miniature calla lilies and white roses.

Eric Chenoweth served as best man for his brother. Groomsmen were Ben, Josh and Jordan Boeke, brothers of the bride; Tony Hornbach, Ryan Nance, Scott Priefogle and Jon Younger, friends of the couple. Ushers were Ryan Bergman and Zac Boeke, cousins of the bride, and Jesse Hein, cousin-in-law of the bride.

Following a reception at the Knights of Columbus in Minster, the couple honeymooned on the island of Kauai in Hawaii.

The bride is a 2002 graduate of Minster High School and a 2006 graduate of Butler University. She is employed by Avon High School in Avon, Ind., as a teacher in the social studies department. She is an assistant coach to the varsity basketball team and is the girls track team's head coach.

Her husband is a 2000 graduate of Pike High School in Indianapolis and is a 2004 graduate of Butler University. He is employed by Baker-Hill in Carmel, Ind., as a regional relationship manager in the sales department.
