

Bernard, Dues wed in November

Jennifer Michelle Bernard, daughter of James and Cindy Bernard of Coldwater, became the bride of John Anthony Dues, son of John and Beth Dues of Minster, on Saturday, Nov. 4, 2006, at St. Augustine Catholic Church Minster at a 1:30 p.m. Mass celebrated by Rev. Rick Nieberding.

Matrons of Honor were Jamie Lewis and Jodi Pohlman. Bridesmaids were Erica Hoying, Stephanie Becker, Tamra Wenning, Jessica Hughes and Shari Liening. Alana Pohlman was the Flower Girl.

Performing the duties of Best Man was Andrew Bruns. Groomsmen were Adam Dues, Matt Dues, Aaron Dues, Mark Dues, Max Dues and Curt Albers. Ring Bearer was Luke Pohlman.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white strapless, fitted, floor length gown with a mid-length white veil by Exclusive. She carried 24 white roses with white dendrobium as accent.

The groom was attired in a black tuxedo, black vest with a striped black and silver tie.

The groomsmen wore black tuxedos, silver vests and striped black and silver ties.

Bridesmaid's wore full length black designer gowns by Bill Levkoff.

The attendants' flowers were

Mr. and Mrs. John Dues

white hydrangeas, white roses and white cabbage roses.

A reception was held at Romer's in St. Henry.

The bride holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from Bowling Green State University. The groom holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Miami University and a Master of Education from the University of Cincinnati.

After their honeymoon in Aspen, Colo., the couple will make their new home at 1415 Detroit Street, Apt. 2, Denver, CO 80206.