

Couple wed in fall ceremony

Marcee Marie Olberding and Scott Christopher Eyink were married at St. Augustine Church, Sept. 28, 2002. Rev. Louis Schmit celebrated the nuptial mass.

The bride is the daughter of Ron and Jean Olberding of Minster. The groom is the son of Victor and Marlene Eyink of Coldwater.

Music for the ceremony was provided by organist Amy Noykos and vocalists Brigitte Hart and Chip Noykos.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown by Bridal Originals, featuring a Schiffl lace bodice with an off the shoulder neckline and long sleeves. The gown and its semi cathedral train were accented with lace inserts, sequins and rhinestones. Self-covered buttons concealed the back zipper.

Her double illusion veil edged with satin ribbon was held by a silver tiara with pearls and rhinestones. She wore a single strand of pearls and matching earrings.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of tightly clustered roses in white, pale pink, wisteria and delicate yellow. The flowers were accented with sheer ribbon edged in white satin, pearls and English ivy.

Alyce Olberding served her sister as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Eliane Bruns, sister of the groom; Susan Albers, cousin of the bride; Christine Wilson, cousin of the bride; Brenda Jeuing, friend of the couple; and Barb Timmerman, friend of the couple. The flower girl was Ashley Bruns, niece of the groom.

The attendants wore identical wisteria satin gowns with chiffon skirts fashioned by Jordan. They had matching earrings and necklaces in silver and rhinestones, gifts from the bride.

The attendants carried cascades of wisteria roses, es, pink and yellow roses, and accents of sheer wisteria ribbon, miniature white roses, pearls and English ivy.

The groom chose a Southbridge full dress tuxedo by Perry Ellis which featured a notch lapel and classic tailcoat design with two button front. He accented his tuxedo with a white vest and bow tie, while his groomsmen used vests and ties in amethyst.

Serving as best man was the groom's brother, Brian Eyink. Groomsmen were Scott Bruns, brother-in-law of the groom; Ryan Olberding, brother of the bride; Adam Olberding, brother of the bride; Roger Heuing, friend of the couple, and Brad Bergman, friend of the couple. The ring bearer was Kevin Bruns, nephew of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, the mother of the bride wore a floor length, one piece gown in mauve georgette, with a Venetian lace bodice under a long chiffon jacket. The groom's mother chose a floor length royal blue dress with a beaded appliquéd jacket. Each mother wore a corsage of white roses with silver accents.

The grandparents of the bride, Ruth and Lionel Krieg, were honored at the ceremony and deceased grandparents and family members were remembered with a bouquet of cut flowers on the altar.

A dinner and reception was held following the ceremony at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Minster, with evening DJ music by Slick and Rick. A rehearsal dinner hosted by the groom's parents was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Cassella.

The bride is a graduate of Wright State University with a bachelor of science in Nursing. She is currently employed as a nurse at St. Rita's Medical Center, Lima.

Her husband is a graduate of Bowling Green State University with a bachelor of science degree in accounting and management information systems. He is currently employed as a software engineer for Microsoft, Findlay.

After a honeymoon trip to the Bahamas, the couple is residing in Bluffton.
