August ceremony unites couple

Kelly Sue Stueve and Adam Matthew Fullenkamp were married Aug. 2 2003 at 2 p.m. in St. Augustine Church, Minster. Fr. Louis Schmit C.P.P.S. officiated.

Music was provided by organist Amy Noykos, vocalists Sharon Chaney, Sara Stueve and Luke Fullenkamp, and trumpeter Larry Coppess.

The bride, who was escorted down the aisle by her father, chose a white strapless a-line gown featuring a bodice embroidered with sequin and pearl accents. It had a full organza overlay skirt patterned with scattered sequins and pearls that cascaded into the cathedral train. She wore a satin edged two layer veil attached to a pearl and sequin headpiece. Her bouquet was a clutch of red, peach and white roses accented with hydrangea and stephanotis.

Alycia Niemeyer served her friend as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Krista White, Sara Stueve, Ashley Kuehner and Danielle Edsinger. Junior bridesmaid was Hanna Muhlenkamp and the miniature bride was Conner Reed.

The attendants wore apple red gowns of chiffon over satin with ruched and beaded bodices. They carried smaller clutches of roses fashioned after the bridal bouquet. The junior bridesmaid's sleeveless red satin gown featured a bow accent at the empire waist, and the junior bride had a white a-line gown of organza over satin. She carried a pomander of mixed flowers.

Best man was Paul Fullenkamp and the groomsmen were Randy Stueve, Mike Stueve, Greg Stueve and Scott Kinsella. Junior Groomsman was Curtis Stueve and the ring bearer was Carter Stueve. Ushers were Ben, Joe and Ryan Fullenkamp.

The bride is the daughter of Bernard and JoAnn Stueve of Minster, and a 1998 graduate of Minster High School. She has a master's degree in occupation therapy from the University of Findlay and she is employed at St. Francis Hospital, in Wilmington, Delaware. Her husband is the son of Luke and Sue Fullenkamp and Michael and June Wuebker, all of Minster. He is also a 1998 graduate of Minster High School and has a masters degree in biomechanics from the University of Toledo. He is pursuing a Ph.D. in biomechanics at the University of Delaware in Newark.

Mrs. Stueve wore black crepe gown with satin trim featuring a cascading hemline. Mrs. Wuebker wore a black gown with a draped front and a metallic sheen. Mrs. Fullenkamp wore a black floor length skirt and a beaded sleeveless top.

A reception at Romer's in St. Henry followed the ceremony and the couple honeymooned in Playa del Carmen, Mexico. They are residing in Newark, Delaware.
