

Couple are united in marriage

Jill Marie Bergman and Jesse Dale Hein were united in marriage Saturday, July 2, 2005 at a ceremony held in St. Augustine Catholic Church at 2:30 p.m. The Rev. Louis Schmit officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Harry and Jean Bergman, Minister and the groom is the son of Dale and Jane Hein, Chickasaw.

The bride wore a white strapless, dropped waist, organza over satin gown and a semi-cathedral train. The bodice is overlaid with a satin embroidery scrollwork pattern highlighted in crystal bugle beads and iridescent sequins. The full ball gown skirt features the satin embroidery pattern as on the bodice. The hem is a unique design of a window pane pattern accented with beads.

She wore an Austrian crystal tiara with a custom designed veil of matching organza that matches the gown edged with coordinating lace appliqués as on the gown. She carried a bouquet of red roses with white Fuji mums.

The maid of honor was Stephanie Boeke. Bridesmaids were Angela Bergman, Gina Hein, Kim Hausfeld, Julie Eckert, Renea Davis, Lynn Hartings. The miniature bride was Jessica Wisniewski.

The bridal attendants wore gowns of "new red" Duchess satin, natural waist, A-line floor length skirt with white on the edge of the bodice. The waist is highlighted with a crystal pleated sash leading to streamers at the back waist. They carried bouquets of white fuji mums.

The best man was Aaron Winner. Groomsmen were Ryan Bergman, Kurt Bergman, "groomsman in spirit", Aaron Hein, Cory Eyink, Dustin Thobe, and Todd Thobe. Shane O'Brien was the ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a gold satin floor length skirt with a sleeveless scoop neck top accented with gold and silver glitter. The mother of the groom wore a stone chiffon floor length dress with a sleeveless v-neck top accented with beads along the neckline.

The reception was held at Knights of St. John's Hall, Maria Stein with 600 guests.

The bride is a 2000 graduate of Minster High School and graduated from Bowling Green State University in 2004 with a Bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education. The groom is a 2000 graduate of Marion Local High School, is employed at Precision Strip Inc. and is a member of the Minster Fire Department.

The couple went to Cancun, Mexico on their honeymoon and are now residing in Minster.

