Lynn Macke and Steven Hengel

Engagement is announced

Lynne Macke, daughter of the late Dale and JoAnn (Frierott) Macke, St. Marys, is happy to announce her engagement to Steven Hengel, Tampa, FL, son of Gene and Darlene Hengel, Tampa, FL.

The bride-elect was born and raised in St. Marys, and is one of six children. Lynne's mother, JoAnn was born and raised in Minster (parents were Frank and Isabel Frierott) with her two sisters, Eunice Piening and Audrey Meyer. Eunice and Audrey still reside in Minster along with some of Lynne's cousins. Before moving to Florida in 1982, Lynne attended Holy Rosary School and spent part of her freshman year at Memorial High School. She received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the University of Florida, and had an extensive, 12-year career with the Walt Disney Company before launching into the real estate industry. Lynne is currently a successful real estate agent for a new home builder in the Orlando area.

The bridegroom-elect grew up in South Bend, IN with two siblings before relocating to Tampa with his family in 1982. Steve is a graduate of the University of South Florida with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management. After leading several business teams for both IBM and AT & T, he is now the Senior Client Solutions Manager for Choice Point, a database and security intelligence corporation. Steve is also on the Board of Directors for the MacDonald Training Center, a non-profit organization.

The couple plans to wed with a Catholic ceremony on April 22, 2006 in Orlando.
