

Couple annnounce engagement

Kelli Jo Buschur of St. Henry and Jason Joseph Horstman of Minster have announced their engagement.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Jerome and Janice Buschur of St. Henry, and she is a graduate of Wright State University with an associate's degree in business management and a bachelor's degree in business education. She is currently employed by Buschur's Refrigeration in St. Henry.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Michael and Jane Horstman of Minster. He is a graduate of ITT with a diploma in heating, ventilation and airconditioning. He is currently a student at Bowling Green State University.

