

50th anniversary celebration planned

Patrick and Patricia Hoying of Minster are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary at St. Augustine Church on Sunday, April 30, at 10 a.m.

Patrick and Patricia Brunswick were married on April 7, 1956, at St. Peter and Paul Church in Newport, with the Rev. Clarence Liebold presiding. A wedding reception was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Minster.

Dottie Zimmerman Dues, friend of the bride, was maid of honor. Joan and Barbara Brunswick, sisters of the bride, and Janet Eilerman Hoying, niece of the groom, were bridesmaids. Eugene Hoying, brother of the groom, served as best man. Maurice Brunswick, cousin of the bride, was groomsman. William Busse and Lawrence Demange were ushers.

The couple have four children: The late LTC Jeffrey P. Hoying, and widow Pamela, Jane and Christofer

Wendling, Kurt J. Hoying, and May and Mark Wendeln. Their grandchildren are Jacob Eilerman, Kristin and Allysa Hoying, Chelsea Wendling and Mary Wendeln.

Patricia is the daughter of Verna (Hope) and the late TJ Brunswick. Patrick is the son of the late Henry and Anna (Schmitmeyer) Hoying.

The Hoyings were farmers in the St. Patrick area until 1998, when they retired to Minster. They also owned Shelby Drainage Co. Inc. for five years. They enjoy family travelling, Florida, boating and cards.

Friends and relatives are invited to an open house on Sunday, April 30, from 2-4:30 p.m. at the Union Hall at the corner of Fifth and Cleveland streets in Minster, to celebrate the golden anniversary.
