

Celebrations

Pringer, Huddleston speak vows

Monica Susan Prenger, of Westfield, Ind., formerly of Minster, daughter of Robert and Doris Prenger of Minster, became the bride of John Alon Huddleston of Westfield, Ind., son of Linda Pratt of Indianapolis, Ind., on June 9, 2007, in an outdoor ceremony at The Trimbach House in Dayton. The Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Chris Herman. The pianist was Tyler Hoying.

The bridesmaids were Jessica Bhalerao, sister of the bride, Katrina Nixon, sister of the bride, and Jessica Huddleston, sister of the groom. Jenna Nixon, goddaughter of the bride, served as the mini-bridesmaid. Katelyn Heitkamp and Rebecca Trimbach, nieces of the bride, served as the flower girls.

The groomsmen were Jeff Maxwell, friend of the groom, Kevin Sayre, friend of the groom, and Philip Prenger, brother of the bride.

The bride was attired in a champagne colored gown with ivory lace and beading over ruching on the upper front and back with a simple train with an ivory veil lined with ivory ribbon. The bride's flowers consisted of champagne roses and ivory callie lillies accented with blue hydrangeas and ivory freesia. The bride was given by her parents.

The bridesmaids wore cornflower blue dresses. Each bridesmaid picked out her own dress, which was handmade by the mother of the bride. The attendants carried bouquets consisting of blue hydrangeas, champagne roses and ivory freesia.

The groomsmen were attired in black suits with a champagne and blue tie that matched the bride's dress.

A reception was held at the Trimbach House in Dayton, with a casual barbeque/cookout catered by Chef's Touch Catering, and the couple honeymooned in Santorini, Mykonos and Athens,

Mr. and Mrs. John Huddleston

Greece.

The bride is a 2003 graduate of The Ohio State University, holding a Doctor of Pharmacy degree. The groom graduated from Purdue University and Indiana University, holding degrees in English and Computer and Information Technology.

The couple now resides in Westfield, Ind.