

Huelsmans observe golden anniversary

Gerald and Betty Huelsman of Minster are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary.

Gerald Huelsman and the former Betty Winner were married Nov. 14, 1959 during a 9 a.m. ceremony at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Fort Loramie with the Rev. Paul Ratermann officiating.

Their reception was held at the Osgood American Legion Hall. The wedding party consisted of Dorothy (Grieshop) Kraujalis as the maid of honor and the best man was Jack Winner. Other bridal attendants and groomsmen were Mary (Meyers) Grogean, Mickey (Ordean) Poore, Judy (Winner) Geiger, William Winn, Don Lampert and Don Luthman. The flower girls were Dianne (Luebke) Imwalle and Denise (Luebke) Boeckman.

The couple are the parents of five children, listed with their spouses: Michael and Becky Huelsman of Miamisburg, Ann and Mitch Faulk of Rock Hall, S.C., Kurt and June Huelsman of Roswell, Ga., Jay and Anastasia Huelsman of Cincinnati and Gina and Greg Farley of Tega Cay, S.C. They have also been blessed with 14 grandchildren.

The children have planned a gathering to celebrate the 50th wedding anniversary in a chalet overlooking the Smokey Mountains on Thanksgiving weekend.
