

Couple united in January ceremony

Sandy Schlater and Chase Kelm were united in marriage at St. Nicholas Catholic Church in Osgood on a beautiful winter day on Jan. 14, 2006. Their reception was held at the Knights of Columbus hall in Versailles, which was decorated with evergreens, berries and pinecones for their winter wedding.

Sandy is the daughter of Roger and Shirley Schlater of Versailles and Chase is the son of Peter and Dionne Kelm of Watertown, Wis. Sandy's sisters, Christy Wuebker and Lori Griesdorn, were her matrons of honor. Adam Kelm served the duties of best man for his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase Kelm

Sandy and Chase both graduated from the Ohio State University. Sandy is a sixth grade teacher at Upper Arlington, and Chase is a pilot for Air-Net. They reside on Shattuck Avenue in Columbus.
