

Local couple is united in June ceremony

Amy Michelle Wyen and Patrick William Kerrigan were joined in marriage June 14, 2003 at St. Augustine Catholic Church, Minster.

The bride is the daughter of Phil and Diane Wyen of Minster, and her husband is the son of Dennis and Jane Kerrigan of Minster.

Ft. Larry Wyen performed the nuptial mass with music by Amy Noykos and the St. Augustine Men's Choir.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride chose an ivory two piece gown with a fitted top, imported from Great Britain. The short sleeved bodice featured bead work and embroidery accenting the neckline and sleeves, and the silk skirt featured a chapel length train. her headpiece was a single band by Jessica McClintock with freshwater pearls and rhinestones. She carried white calla lilies and alstrameria accented with Bells of Ireland.

Denise Hardman served as maid of honor for her sister, and the bridesmaids were Shari Liening, Jodi Borges, Kendra Leugers, Melissa Haider, Kim Stricker, Danielle Hoelscher and Lindy King. Kelly Brandewie was the miniature

The attendants wore champagne gowns with empire waists and a-line skirts. They carried bouquets of deep purple lilies, yellow alstrameria, pink calla lilies and delphinium.

The bride's mother wore a floor length dress in ivory and the groom's mother wore a periwinkle blue gown. Both wore wrist corsages in mixed flowers.

The best man was Dennis Kerrigan, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Travis Heitkamp, Steve Enneking, Dan Bitter, Ken Albers, Andy Dwenger, Nick Wyen and Zach Wyen.

A dinner reception was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Minster, following the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Minster High School and Bowling Green State University. She is currently employed as a substitute teacher.

The groom is a graduate of Minster High School and the University of Dayton. He is currently a quality engineer at American Showa.

Following a honeymoon in Ocho Rios, Jamaica, the couple is making their home in Amelia Ohio.

