

Teresa Koss and Mark Knapke

Engagement announced

Dr. Gene and Mrs. Norma Knapke, of New Bremen, would like to announce the engagement of Teresa Elizabeth Koss, daughter of Christopher Koss of West Chester and Karen Kiessling-Koss of Sharonville, to their son, Mark Joseph Knapke.

The bride-to-be is a 2003 graduate of Mother of Divine Grace and a 2005 graduate of Self-Health Institute in Lebanon. She is employed as a licensed massage therapist.

The prospective groom graduated from New Bremen High School in 2000 and from the University of Dayton in 2004 with a Bachelor's of Science. He is employed as a software application engineer at Scientific Applications International Corporation in Dayton.

A wedding is set for early May 2006 at St. Michael the Archangel of Sharonville with a reception following at The Legacy in Cincinnati.
