

Golden anniversary celebration planned

Lawrence and Wilma Link of Fort Recovery will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with a Mass of Thanksgiving at 11 a.m. Nov. 30 at Mary Help of Christians Church, Fort Recovery.

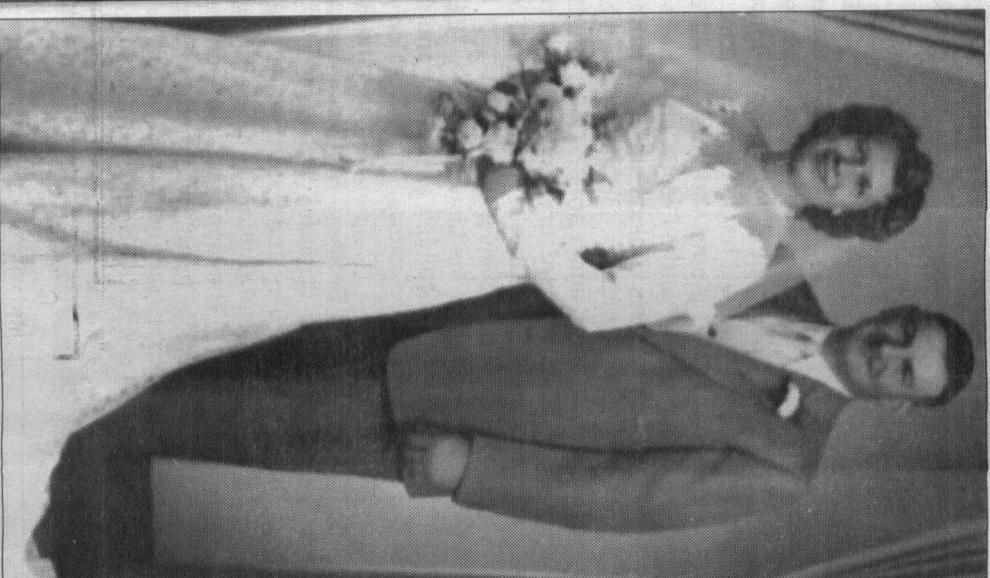

Lawrence Link and the former Wilma Goettemoeller were married Nov. 28, 1953 at St. Henry Catholic Church. Rev. Leonard Goettemoeller, C.P.P. S. officiated at the marriage and will offer their Golden Anniversary Mass of Thanksgiving.

Wedding attendants were Edna Goettemoeller Kremer, Elmer Link, Mildred Goettemoeller Wuebker, Marie Goettemoeller Minnich and Marilyn Link Fullenkamp. Rudy Link and the late Ray Wuebker were

The Links are the parents of ten children: five daughters, Mary Jane (Eugene) Homan of Celina, Kathleen (James) Riethman of Minster, Linda (Richard) Shier of Fort Recovery, Teresa (Steve) Smith of Springboro and Carol (James) Knapke of Fort Recovery; three sons, Daniel (Nancy) of Portland, and Robert (Sharon) and David (Marie) of Fort Recovery. Two sons died in infancy. The couple has 39 grandchildren.

A dinner and reception with family and friends will follow the mass at the Fort Recovery Legion Hall. There will be an open house from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. The couple requests no gifts.
