Couple celebrating 50 years of marriage

Paul J. "Pete" Magoto and Helen Magoto of Russia will observe their 50th wedding anniversary Nov. 30 with an 11 a.m. Mass of Thanksgiving in St. Remy Church. Pete, son of the late Clarence and Magdalene Guillozet Magoto, and the former Helen Rindler, daughter of the late Ed and Elizabeth Pour Rindler of Chickasaw were married Nov. 26, 1953 at Precious Blood Church, Chickasaw.

The couple's children and grandchildren will host a dinner and reception for family and friends following Mass at the Russia Community Center. An open house will be held from 2 to 4 p.m.

Maid of honor for the wedding was Ruth Magoto, sister of the groom. Best man was Donald Rindler, brother of the bride. Other members of the wedding party included: Jane Magoto Thomas, sister of the groom and Phyllis Rindler Hull, cousin of the bride. Ushers were John Magoto, brother of the groom and Paul Perin, friend of the couple.

The Magotos have four children, Linda Mosure of Dublin, Ohio, Steven of Russia, Nicholas of Upper Arlington and Karen Jakobi of Tustin, Calif. They have 11 grandchildren.

Magoto retired from Minster Machine Co. in 1991 and accepted a position as operator of the Russia Wastewater Treatment Plant, from which he retired in Sept. 2003. Mrs. Magoto is a former office employee of Minster Machine Co. and Clopay Corporation. She retired in 1994.

The couple enjoy gardening and woodworking and they especially like spending time with their grandchildren. Traveling has always been enjoyable for them.
