

The Community Post Celebrations

Thursday, January 6, 2005

Couple united in July ceremony

Amy Lee Overman and Sean Edward McDermott were married July 17, 2004 in St. Augustine Church. The bride is the daughter of Jim and Kathy Overman of Minister and the groom is the son of Dick and Debbie McDermott of Avon Lake, Ohio. Fr. Mark Armstrong celebrated the Nuptial mass assisted by Deacon John Schmiesing.

Music for the ceremony was provided by organist Amy Noykos, and vocalists Jim Maurer and Tina Pignataro. The trumpeter was Larry Coppess.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, wearing a strapless ivory satin gown with organza overlay. He carried a hand-tied bouquet of ivory roses, gardenias and stephanotis.

Sisters of the bride Kelly Wiss and Courtney Overman, served as matron and maid of honor; bridesmaids were; Amy Snider, Sarah Adloff, Kerri Bergman, Sara Buschur and Jenny Clune, all friends of the couple.

The flower girl was Madison Wiss, the niece and godchild of the bride.

The attendants wore Watters and Watters strapless tea-length dresses in ivory and hydrangea. They carried hand-tied bouquets of lavender roses and hydrangeas.

Kevin Buddie, served his friend a best man. Groomsmen were: Ian McDermott, brother of the groom; Matt McDermott, brother of the groom; Mike Wiss, brother-in-law of the bride; and Brian Barnes, Phil Truax, and Mike Topa, friends of the couple. The ushers were the groom's brothers, Patrick and Colin McDermott.

The mother of the bride wore a titanium ensemble with brocade satin, and the mother of the groom wore a sleeveless two-piece celadon green ensemble.

Following a reception at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Minister, the couple honeymooned on the Mayan Riviera in Mexico.

Sean McDermott is a 2002 graduate of the University of Dayton with a degree in civil engineering. He is currently pursuing a masters in urban planning, design and development from Cleveland State University. He is employed by Stephen Hovancsek and Associates as a civil engineer.

Amy McDermott is a 2001 graduate of the University of Dayton with a degree in public relations. She received her teaching certificate from Ashland University and is pursuing her masters degree in education.

The couple is residing in Lakewood, Ohio.