May ceremony unites area couple

Kimberly Jo Kremer and Terry Paul Muhlenkamp were united in marriage on May 31, 2003 at Holy Trinity Church, Coldwater.

The bride is the daughter of Lester and Betty Kremer of St. Sebastian. The groom is the son of Ken and Peg Muhlenkamp of Coldwater.

Father August Langenkamp and Fr. Thomas Mannebach officiated at the ceremony. Music was provided by organist Ron Johnson and vocalist Casie Berger.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride wore a white organza a-line gown with a cathedral train. The bodice featured spaghetti straps, and a sweetheart neckline, and was beaded with white and iridescent pearls and sequins, as was the train. A pearl and rhinestone flower tiara held her double layer fingertip veil. She carried a cascade of white lilies and pink roses that was accented with blue buds and silver ribbons.

Jenny Seitz served her sister as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Jessica Schmackers, Jenelle Gillis, and Shanna Braun, friends of the couple; and Brooke Osterholt, cousin of the bride. They wore identical indigo blue gowns with empire waists and square necklines.

Best man was Doug Muhlenkamp, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Jeff Kremer and Justin Kremer, brothers of the bride; and Jason Muhlenkamp and Chad Muhlenkamp, brothers of the groom. Ushers were Jason Kremer and Jesse Kremer, brothers of the bride; and Rob Muhlenkamp and Craig Muhlenkamp, brothers of the groom.

The mother of the bride wore a pearl colored floor length gown. The groom's mother chose a mint green dress with matching jacket. The mothers were presented with corsages of pink roses.

The wedding reception was held at the Knights of St. John Hall, Maria Stein. Music was provided by the Spinning Gs.

The bride is a 1998 graduate of Marion Local High School and a 2002 graduate of Wright State University with a bachelor's degree in social work.

The groom is a 1994 graduate of Coldwater High School and a 1999 graduate of West Point. he is currently a captain in the U. S. Army waiting to attend the Engineer Captain's career course in Fort Leonardwood, Mo.

Following a honeymoon in Montego Bay, Jamaica, the couple is residing in St. Roberts, Mo.
