

Couple engaged

Dave and Deborah Knapke of Minster have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Abigail Knapke, to Craig Schlater, son of Ron and Karen Schlater of St. Henry.

The bride-elect is a 2008 graduate of Minster High School and earned a bachelor's degree in recreational therapy from the University of Toledo. She is planning on continuing her education.

The prospective groom is a 2007 graduate of St. Henry High School and earned a bachelor's degree in aviation management and operations from Bowling Green State University. He is also planning on continuing his education. He is employed in the United States Air Force, Minot, N.D., as a minuteman III missile operator.

The couple is planning a Nov. 17, 2012, wedding at St. Augustine Catholic Church in Minster.
