

Celebrations

Heitkamp, Steinbrunner united in marriage

Mindy Marie Heitkamp and Cole Thomas Steinbrunner were united in marriage Aug. 20, 2005, at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Maria Stein. The Rev. Ken Schroeder officiated the celebration.

The bride is the daughter of Gary and Patricia Heitkamp, and the groom is the son of Steven and Linda Steinbrunner.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride wore a white satin strapless gown with embroidery, sequins, beads and pearls cascading down the cathedral train.

Sarah Johnson, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Erin Steinbrunner, sister of the groom; Carrie Tuente; Tammy Dippold and Karen Eick, friends of the couple and Erica Clune, cousin of the bride. They wore claret red beaded dresses with spaghetti straps and A-line skirts.

Brooke and Britney Siefiring, cousins of the bride, were flower girls. They wore sleeveless teal-length white dresses and dropped silver rose petals as they walked into the church.

Mark Steinbrunner, brother of the groom, was the best man. Other groomsmen were Dean and Kurt Heitkamp, brothers of the bride; Jake Gaerke, Justin Dues and Grant Walliser, friends of the couple. The ushers were Todd and Cory Heitkamp, brothers of the bride.

Zachary Cline, cousin of the groom, was the ring bearer.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Knights of St. John Hall in Maria Stein.

The bride is a graduate of Maria Stein Local High School and a pharmacy student at Ohio Northern University.

The groom is a graduate of Coldwater High School and DeVry University. He is an engineer for Hitachi Medical Systems America.

The couple resides at 205 Turner Ave., Ada, Ohio, 45810.

