Mr. and Mrs. Mark Timmerman

Couple united in September ceremony

Angela Marie Kemper, daughter of James and Mary Kemper of Minster, and Mark Christopher Timmerman, son of Paul and Patty Timmerman of Fort Loramie, were joined in marriage Sept. 11, 2004 in St. Augustine Church, Minster. Fr. Louis Schmit celebrated the Nuptial Mass with music by organist and vocalist Amy Noykos and vocalist Matt Ranly.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father, wearing a white strapless gown featuring a micro pleated chiffon bodice. The empire waistline was accented with beaded lace. The back of the gown featured covered buttons and a sweep train. She carried a nosegay bouquet of white silk roses accented with burgundy and mauve roses and burgundy sleeveless gown trimmed

The attendants wore two-piece gowns with white satin sleeveless bodice detailed with vine satin trim and buttons in the back. The 4-line skirts were in the coordinating berry. They carried a nosegay bouquet of burgundy silk roses accented with white and mauve roses and burgundy mums.

Taylor Timmerman, daughter of the groom was the miniature bride. She wore a white satin sleeveless gown trimmed with beaded lace. The aline skirt was detailed with a split back inserted with tulle.

Rachel DeLoye, the groom's godchild, was the flower girl. She wore a mock two-piece gown with a white tank bodice and a berry skirt. The waistline was accented with a beaded band.

Paul Timmerman was best man for his son. The groomsmen were: Chris DeLoye, brother-in-law of the groom, Tony Kemper, brother of the bride, Keith Timmerman, brother of the groom, and Jason and John Timmerman, cousins of the groom.

Nicholas Kemper, the bride's godchild was the miniature groom.

Ushers were Scott Dwenger and Tony Schmiesing, friends of the couple.

The groom wore a charcoal cutaway tuxedo with a coachman back and peak lapels. He wore coordinating hickory striped trousers and a silver vest and Windsor tie. The groomsmen wore the same tuxedo with berry vests and Windsor ties.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Minster K of C Hall. and the couple honeymooned on a Caribbean cruise. They are residing in Fort Loramie.

The bride is a 1997 graduate of Minster High School and a 2001 graduate of Wright State University. She is employed as a psychologist at the Auglaize County Education Service Center.

Her husband is a 1996 graduate of Fort Loramie High School. He is employed as an equipment service technician at Honda of America.
