

Wedding celebrated

Joy Renee Klosterman and Benjamin Mark Warborg were joined in marriage June 14, 2003 at St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church, Charlotte, N.C. in a nuptial mass performed by Rev. Martin Schratz.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a candlelight satin princess-cut gown with spaghetti straps and a scalloped neckline. The scalloped hem was caught into a full chapel train. She carried a free-style bouquet of white roses and white gerber daisies, accented with ivy and purple limonium.

Julie Hoying served her cousin as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the groom's sisters, Suzanne Stelzer and Erin Warborg. They wore Victorian style lilac chiffon gowns with spaghetti straps and beaded bodices, and carried bouquets of white roses accented with purple limonium and ivy.

A friend of the groom, Louis Buchino was best man. The groomsmen were Jeff Tremain and Nathan Klosterman. Ushers were Dan Hoying, Kelly Stelzer and Matt Johnson.

A reception followed the ceremony at Aquinas Center.

The bride is a 1996 graduate of Marion Local High School. She received a master's degree in chemical engineering from the University of Dayton in 2002. She is the daughter of Victor and Patricia Klosterman of Celina.

The groom is a 1996 graduate of Jefferson High School in Wisconsin. He received a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from University of Dayton in 2001. He is the son of William and Rochelle Warborg of Johnson Creek, Wisc.

The couple spent a week in the Dominican Republic as a honeymoon and they reside in Charlotte, N.C.
