

Mr. and Mrs. Ian Wells

Couple 'tie the knot' during May ceremony

Beth Renee Kramer, daughter of Lloyd and Sylvia Kramer of Maria Stein and Ian Steward Wells, son of Von and Kitty Wells of Huber Heights, Ohio were joined in marriage May 22, 2004. Rev. Earl Simone officiated at the 1:30 p.m. nuptials at St. Peter Catholic Church, Huber Heights.

The bride's grandmother, Hilda Koverman of McCartyville and the Groom's grandmother Lerlene Mosley of Huber Heights, were honored at the ceremony.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. She chose a satin A-line gown with spaghetti straps, accented with silver thread embroidery and crystal beading. She carried white roses and mini Gerber daisies.

The bride's sister Sara Kramer served as maid of honor. Her sisters Kristina Russell and Tricia Langerud and a friend, Lora Booher were bridesmaids. Rachel Langerud, the godchild of the bride, was the flower girl. The bride's attendants wore coral satin gowns with crystal beading accents on the bodice. They carried bouquets of roses with mini Gerber daisies.

The best man was Craig Byler, a friend of the groom. Groomsmen were Dean Wells, the groom's brother and friends, Paul Cisne and Curt Bowman. The ring bearer was the groom's nephew Max Wells. Ushers were the bride's brother Eric Kramer and a friend James Bradbury.

A reception was held at the Celebrations Banquet Hall, Vandalia, Ohio and the couple honeymooned in Cancun, Mexico, before establishing a residence in Huber Heights.

Mrs. Wells is a nurse at Ohio Pediatrics, Huber Heights. She is a graduate of Marion Local High School with a nursing degree from Wright State University. Her husband is a Wayne High School graduate who is employed at Sam's Club and Longhorn Steak House.
