

August ceremony unites Versailles couple

Audra Elise Dues, daughter of Gary and Karen Dues of Versailles, was joined in marriage with Mitchell Lee Wietholter, son of Bernard Wietholter of Osgood and Karen Wietholter of Versailles, Aug. 9, 2003.

The couple exchanged vows at St. Denis Church, Versailles with Fr. David Vincent officiating. The organist was Julie Schmitmeyer and the vocalist was Jennifer Sentman.

Grandparents of the bride are Gene and Treva Schmitmeyer, and Mary and the late William Dues.

Grandparents of the groom are the late Clarence and Melinda Schlarnan, and Hazel and the late Elmer Wietholter.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, Audra chose a fully beaded white strapless dress with a train. She carried her great-great-grandmother's engagement ring with her flowers - a bunch of calla lilies with blue accents tied up in silver ribbons.

Lindsey Shoffstall served her friend as mad of honor. Bridesmaids were Christina Smith, Erin Dues, Tracy Wietholter, Tonya Wietholter, Tammy Wietholter, Kelli Smith and Susan Klosterman. Kiera Gump was flower girl.

The attendants wore ice blue gowns with matching shawls and carried calla lilies with blue accents.

The mothers of both bride and groom wore light blue floor-length gowns.

Steve Broerman was best man for Mitchell. Groomsmen were Jeremy Oakley, Matthew Bailes, Nathan Hecht, Ryan Schutz, Jeff Oliver, Mitchell Dues and Brett Dues. Ring bearer was Bradley Fullenkamp Jr.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Osgood Legion Hall with music by Karen Holtzaple.

After a honeymoon trip to Montego Bay, Jamaica, the couple is residing in Osgood.
