

The Community Post Celebrations

Thursday, November 4, 2004

Couple wed in August ceremony

Nicole Marie Bitler, daughter of Jeff and Ruth Bitler of Minster, was joined in marriage to Travis Clyde Wilges son of Ron and Darla Wilges of Sidney, Aug. 28, 2004, at St. Augustine Church, Minster.

Rev. Hal Belcher officiated at the ceremony. Amy Noykos was the organist, Renee Purpus was the flutist, and Dan Garmann was the trumpeter.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride chose a White satin strapless A-line gown accented with beading on the bodice, and the chapel train. She wore her mother's veil.

She carried red, orange and purple roses, orange gerbera daisies, blue delphinium, white stephanotis and babies breath.

Kelly Brunswick served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Monica Rabren, Heather Garmann, Kori Weiss, Amy Schmiesing, and Debbie Dwenger.

The attendants wore light blue, strapless tea-length gowns, and carried bouquets of red, orange and purple roses, orange gerbera daisies, and blue delphinium.

Jeremiah Wildermuth was best man. The groomsmen were Craig Cantor, Brent Rabren, Dan Bitler, Josh Bailey and Jeff Homan.

The groomsmen wore black tuxedos with light blue ties and vests. The groom chose a black tie and vest with his matching tux.

Following the ceremony, the couple had a reception at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Minster. They honeymooned on a Caribbean cruise, and they are living in Beavercreek.

The bride is a 1999 graduate of Minster High School and a 2003 graduate of Wright State University. Her husband is a 1997 graduate of Sidney High School and has an associate's degree in accounting from Edison State College.

Mr. and Mrs.
Travis Wilges

