

Couple to celebrate 60th anniversary

Mel and Vera Woehrmyer of Minster will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary on Sunday, June 15, 2003 with a Mass of Thanksgiving at 10 a.m. at St. Augustine Church, followed by a buffet luncheon for the family at the Union Hall in Minster.

Woehrmyer and the former Vera Puthoff were married June 1, 1943 at St. Patrick Church by the late Rev. Warren G. Hook. Attendants for the ceremony were Roman Meyer of Coldwater, Norma Woehrmyer Purpus and Margie Woehrmyer Larger of Minster and the late Corrine Puthoff Francis and Charles Fullenkamp.

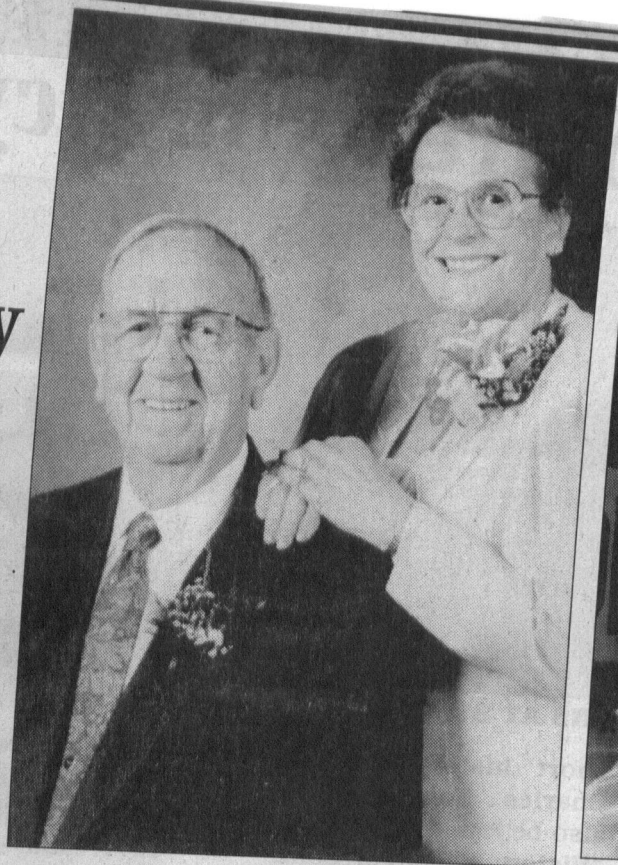

The Woehrmyers are the parents of three sons and three daughters: Ken (Deb) of Lebanon; Jay (Deb) of Three Rivers, Mich.; Bill (Donna) of New Bremen; Judy (Larry) Heitkamp of St. Henry; Dianne

(Ned) Sielschott of Minster; and Sue (Jim) Christian of Versailles. They have 20 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Mel and Vera live at 248 N. Cleveland St., Minster. Mel has been in the decorating business for many years. Most of their spare time is spent visiting and keeping in touch with the family. They also enjoy gardening and playing cards.

An open house and reception will be held for the Woehrmyers at the Union Hall, 180 W. Fifth St. from 2 to 4 p.m. on June 15. The couple requests gifts be omitted.

MEL AND VERA WOEHRMYER TODAY AND IN 1943