

JH

The Community Post Celebrations

Thursday, January 2, 2003

Couple wed in summer ceremony

Jane Susan Prenger, daughter of Larry and Marlene Prenger of Minster and Chad Aaron Wuebker, son of Myrle and Peg Wuebker of New Bremen, were married July 13, 2002 at 2 p.m. in St. Augustine Church, with Deacon Halver Belcher officiating.

The bride's grandparents are Ben and Alvina Hemmelgarn of Minster and the late Alfred and Henrietta Prenger. The groom's grandparents are Paul and June Schott of New Bremen and Joseph and Dorothy Wuebker of Minster.

Soloists were Becky Niekamp, Connie Meiring and Kathy Broering and the organist was Amy Carder.

Anne Puthoff and Karen Martin acted as matrons of honor for their sister. Bridesmaids were Tonya Prenger, the bride's sister-in-law; Kathy Bergman, Nicole Fleck, Michelle Wiss, all friends of the couple; Michelle Zendah, sister of the groom; and the bride's niece, Grace Martin, was the miniature bride.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride chose a sleeveless satin gown with an empire waist and a-line skirt. The bodice and hemline were accented with beads and sequins in a floral pattern. Her headpiece was a pearl and rhinestone floral wreath holding a two-tier fingertip veil edged in satin ribbon. She carried a traditional cascade of stargazer lilies, white roses and stephanotis with greenery.

Her attendants wore two piece dresses with a-line satin skirts and sleeveless tops in a glimmer fabric of Bahama blue. They carried bouquets of white roses, lavender, yellow and white daisies and solidago hand tied with silver ribbon.

Brian Koesters served as best man for his friend.

Groomsmen were Joe Prenger, brother of the bride; Sami Zendah, brother-in-law of the groom; and Matt Craft, Rob Rismiller, Andy Koenig, and Steve Bushman, all friends of the couple. The miniature groom was Ben Puthoff, godchild of the bride. Ushers were the groom's brothers Nathan and Ryan.

The bride's mother wore a long blue crepe gown with a short-sleeve bolero jacket accented with beads and sequins. The groom's mother chose a long gown in champagne beige with a matching long-sleeve jacket.

A reception at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Minster followed the ceremony. A buffet dinner was served at 5:30 p.m. followed by dancing until 11:30 p.m.

Mrs. Wuebker is a graduate of University of Cincinnati with a B.A. in nursing. She is employed at Children's Medical Center, Cincinnati. Her husband attended University of Cincinnati and is employed as a real estate agent with Federle Realtors, Cincinnati.

The couple honeymooned in Nassau, the Bahamas, and they are residing in Cincinnati.